

A fresh bag of hot popcorn, a cup of hot chocolate, a snuggly blanket, and a hometown parade: what a fantastic way to kickoff the holiday season, and historic downtown Redlands is the place to find all of the above. Floats, antique cars, local dignitaries and school bands will be marching into town in honor of the annual Christmas Parade sponsored by Redlands Kiwanis Club.

As the clock strikes six, parade entries wind their way from West State and Eureka Streets down Citrus Avenue, across Eighth to State Street, west on State to Orange, north on Orange Street to Redlands Boulevard, west on Redlands Boulevard to Eureka. Ever increasing attendance for the evening's festivities guarantee the rooftops and streets will be lined with spirited spectators! Families will not want to miss this event!
